Danger.

(By Associated Press.)

MILWAUKEE, Wis., April 9.—The Davidson Theatre, the finest play-house in Milwaukee, and one of the handsomest and costliest theatres in the country, was destroyed by fire, which broke out between 4 and 5 o'clock this morning. The valuable scenery carried by the Liliputians, whose ten days' engagement at Killed Missed. putians, whose ten days' engagement the theatre was to close on Wednesd is all gone.

Shortly after 5 o'clock, when the i was seemingly under control, the that the roof, on which a score or more the firemen stood as they fought flames, went down, and the men w carried with it to the floor of the autorium below. Some were extrica from the furnace of flames by comrade who risked their lives to drag out t prostrate forms of the dead and injured men. Six or eight were soon brought out. Those who were able to speak said there must be ten more in the ruins. For those poor fellows there was no chance. They were roasted to death, if they had not been killed in that terrible plunge from the roof.

Following is a partial list of the dead including one fireman who had a fatal fall before the roof crushed in.

The Dead.

GEORGE JANSSEN, Company No. 2 Cant. LINEHAN. Company No. 4. ARCHIE CAMPRELL, fireboat Cataract. THOMAS MORGAN, No. 1. FRANK M'GURK.

- O'NEILL.
CHRIS REIS. No. 3. died on way to hospital. The following were rescued and taker to the Emergency Hospital: The Rescued.

Lient, CURRAN, of Company No. 1, Central Fire Station, probably fatally injured. FRED MARSH, of Company No. 5, foot crushed. FRED SCHROEDER.

JOHN YOO, pipeman, of No. 4, badly burned and back hurt,
WILLIAM CROWLEY, of Co. 14, was rescued

The first fatality of the fire happened before the more awful tragedy on the roof. Ollie Reis, a fireman, lost his life while trying to reach the roof of the theatre before the roof fell. He had put up a ladder from the northern wing the hotel building, which is two stories lower than the theatre proper, when the ladder swayed and he fell with it to the roof of the wing. He was carried away and died in the arms of his comrades. He was a member of Engine Company No.

The guests of the Davidson Hotel which occupies a part of the building fled panic-stricken from their reems when the alarm of fire run through the corridors. They were really in no danger and had ample time to get out.

danger and had ample time to get out.

None was injured.

The Lillputians' loss is heavy. Rosenfield Brothers, of New York, own the show. It was one of the most elaborately costumed productions on the road, and its scenic property was generally considered magnificent. All this is gone.

L. J. Roderiguez, of the Academy of Music, said: "The loss of Manager Ludwig Rosenfeld with be between $50,000 and $70,000."

wig Rosenfeld will be between $50,000 and $70,000,"
The Davidson Theatre was opened in September, 1891, by the Emma Juch Open's Company. Manager Sherman Brown stated, as he stood watching the smoke curling up to the studded and frescoed ceiling, which had been his pride: "The original cost to John and Alexander Davidson was between $50,000 and $100 er. The loss, of course, is mainly on the interior. The walls will stand when all circ is gone There is no way to estimate the loss, but it may be above half of the original investment. It will be at least a year, of course, before we can reopen, I have no doubt the theatre will be rebuilt."

built"

The Liliputians, who were playing "The Trip to Mars" at the Pavidson, lost their entire production, scenery, costumes, &c., which the Rosenfeld Bros., their managers, value at $50,000. The Rosenfelds are insured, but to what amount is not known.

The Davidson was one of the Snest theatres in the country, and played all the leading attractions.

The Match Is for $2,000 and Attracts Great Interest.

DEXTER PARK, L. I., April 9.—Rolla Heikes, of Dayton, O., and Thomas Peacock, of Westfield, N. Y., shot live pigeons at Dexter Park this afternoon against Neaf Appar, of Plainfield, N. 1. against Neaf Appar, of Plainfield, N. J., and W. H. Wolstencroft, of Philadelphia, Pa., for a stake of $2,000.

The match grew out of the recent tournament of the Interstate Manufacturers' and Dealers' Association, which was held during the last four days of last week. Peacock backs himself and Heikes, and Apgar and Wolstencroft each put up $500. The winners take all and the losers must pay for the birds and other ex-must pay for the penses.

The stake the men shot for is the largest since the celebrated match between Brewer and Elliott three years ago. All the men shot at 28 yards, under the revised Hurlingham rules, 50 yards boundary, 100 birds each. Major Jacob Pentz was referee.

vised Hurlingham rules, 50 yards boundary, 100 birds each. Major Jacob Pentz was referee.

Peacock started the shoot at 1.20. He and Apgar got easy birds and brought them down. Helkes brought down a driver in clever style, with the second barrel. Woistencroft had an easy one.

In the second round Apgar got a bird that drove straight into the muzzle of his gun and he missed. Helkes also got an incomer and missed, so this evened matters up.

Measures and out men were largely the issues involved in that movement. Rightly interpreted, it indicated the public sentiseni la opposition to intrenchment upon the reserved rights of the States through dious Federal election laws, some proposed and others then existing; it voiced the general demand for a discontinuance of the unwise and indefensible financial system of silver-bullion purchases by the Government, instead of the coinage contemplated by the Constitution, a system equally a hindrance to the return to bimetallism, as well as a menace to a and and stable currency: it manifested

Getting Down to the Tariff.

Coming then to the main question—tariff reform—he said that revision should be approached with circumspection, and with a realizing sense of the changed condition of the country since 1857 and 1890.

"An extreme reduction of tariff duties at a time when the Treasury was swollen with a surplus of a hundred million dollars, when the country was reasonably prosperous, when all our industries were in motion, and all our workingmen were employed, assumed a different aspect and presented a different aspect and prese

When Justice O'Brien resumed the trial of Police Capt. William S. Devery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer this morning, Col. James, counsel for Capt. Devery, announced that he had decided that the evidence offered by Prosecutor Weeks was not sufficient to make it necessary for him to offer any testimy in opposition to it. Twelve policemen in uniform had murched in to court, an imposing array from the Eleventh Precinct, come to testify for their late Captain, and now they all marched out again. But Detective Her Husband Tells Justice Walsh Sergts. Vallely, Evanhoe, Reap and others from Police Headquarters re-mained and listened, incidentally acquainting themselves with the appearance of such of the Parkhurst detectives as chanced to visit the scene of the trial.

Col. James addressed the jury in his closing piea. He began with a eulogy of William S. Devery, relating the story of his record as a policeman and his promotion for effective work in the Deince Court, to-day charged with shoplifting.

Mrs. Leigh was accompanied by her husband. Charles D. Leigh, who is a member of the New York Produce Exchange.

Mrs. Leigh pleaded guilty, but afterwards wards with refer the plea. Her husband told Justice Walch that she is a kleptomaniae, and not responsible.
